

Professor Amos Guiora discusses the bystander-victim relationship from a deeply personal and legal perspective, focusing first on the Holocaust and then exploring cases in contemporary society. He shares the experiences of his parents and grandparents during the Holocaust and draws on a wide range of historical material and interviews.

LUNCH & learn

Wednesday, November 28
12 – 1 pm (book signing 1-1:30)

University of Ottawa, Faculty of Law Building,
Room TBD • Free event. Light lunch is included.

Book signing for Hillel students, Faculty of Law students and members of The Bora Laskin Law Society. Copies of The Crime of Complicity will be available for signing. Payment is $40 by cash or credit card.

Author Amos Guiora

RSVP to Lindsay Gottheil at lgottheil@jewishottawa.com

